Name: ___________________________  Age: _____  My Summer Goal: ________________________

Reading Log

________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
________________________________________
There’s something for everyone, at every age, wherever you are. Change up activities to match your skills and interests.

Start Early
Go on an alphabet adventure. Find something that begins with every letter.
- See how the clouds move in the sunny sky. How many colors and shapes do you see?
- Have a scribble party! Practice loops, zigzags, long lines, and curvy lines, too.
- Construct a musical instrument.
- Build a fort or make a drawing of your own special space.
- Do a read-aloud or a sing-along.
- Create a meme, on paper or online.
- Go further, make a Zine.
- Before going to bed, draw or write down what made you smile today.
- Enjoy a book at your special spot inside or outside your house.
- Write down five questions for your future self.
- See how the clouds move in the sunny sky. How many colors and shapes do you see?
- Have a scribble party! Practice loops, zigzags, long lines, and curvy lines, too.
- Do a read-aloud or a sing-along.
- Write a t-shirt slogan you believe in.
- Read an autobiography or biography.
- Create a meme, on paper or online. Go further, make a Zine.
- Interview someone you know. Capture their life story with a drawing or in a poem.
- Interview someone you know. Capture their life story with a drawing or in a poem.
- Write a book review.
- Make and share a playlist or create one with someone.
- Show someone how to make or fix something.

Pave Your Own Path
Do a self-portrait of you today. Then do another self-portrait of you in the future.
- Practice your autograph signature.
- Map where you live and your favorite routes.
- Come hear an author talk at the library.
- Write a t-shirt slogan you believe in.
- Read an autobiography or biography.
- Create a meme, on paper or online.
- Go further, make a Zine.
- Write the top three words that describe you, or make a favorite list.
- Be Yourself
- Construct a musical instrument. Play along to a favorite song!
- Enjoy a book at your special spot inside or outside your house.
- Write down five questions for your future self.
- Before going to bed, draw or write down what made you smile today.
- Check out the latest new books at the library.
- Create your own color then name it.
- See how the clouds move in the sunny sky. How many colors and shapes do you see?
- Have a scribble party! Practice loops, zigzags, long lines, and curvy lines, too.
- Do a read-aloud or a sing-along.
- Write a t-shirt slogan you believe in.
- Read an autobiography or biography.
- Create a meme, on paper or online.
- Go further, make a Zine.
- Interview someone you know. Capture their life story with a drawing or in a poem.
- Interview someone you know. Capture their life story with a drawing or in a poem.
- Write a book review.
- Make and share a playlist or create one with someone.
- Show someone how to make or fix something.

Connect With Others
Make someone smile with a funny story or meme. Jot down your favorite knock-knock joke.
- Read to someone who is younger or older than you.
- Take someone to the library to pick out books for one another.
- Interview someone you know. Capture their life story with a drawing or in a poem.
- Write a book review.
- Make and share a playlist or create one with someone.
- Show someone how to make or fix something.
- Knock, Knock!
- Who’s there?
- Summer of Wonder 2023
- Everyone, Everywhere.
- freelibrary.org/summer